He Keeps Me Singing

Doxology

The Brian Estell family presents The Stones' True Story
Brian, Carla, James, Rebekah, Josiah, Jeremiah, Jonathan and Hannah Estell share the Gospel of Christ through the message of God's creation using lectures, music and illustrations. Their ministry focuses on the flood and the geological features it left in its wake.

THE GREATEST QUESTION

Television talk show host Larry King made a very perceptive comment when he was asked who he would most like to have interviewed from across history. One of those he named was Jesus Christ. "What would you have asked Him?" came the question to Mr. King. "I would like to ask Him if He was indeed virgin born, because the answer to that question would define history."

D. L. MOODY'S HABIT

Someone once asked evangelist D. L. Moody how he managed to remain so intimate in his relationship with Christ. He replied, I have come to Him as the best friend I have ever found, and I can trust Him in that relationship. I have believed He is Savior; have believed He is God; I have believed His atonement on the cross is mine, and I have come to Him and submitted myself on my knees, surrendered everything to Him, and gotten up and stood by His side as my friend, and there isn't any problem in my life, there isn't any uncertainty in my work but I turn and speak to Him as naturally as to someone in the same room, and I have done it these years because I can trust Jesus.

GOD IS PRESENT EVERYWHERE

Those who seek the throne of grace find that throne in every place; If we live a life of prayer, God is present everywhere. In our sickness and our health, in our want, or in our wealth, If we look to God in prayer, God is present everywhere. When our earthly comforts fail, when the woes of life prevail, 'Tis the time for earnest prayer; God is present everywhere. Then, my soul, in every strait, to Thy Father come, and wait; He will answer every prayer; God is present everywhere.

--Oliver Holden, 1765-1844

NOT FAR AWAY

Dr. Tony Compolo says when he was a boy growing up in a congested city, his mother arranged for a teenage girl who lived nearby to walk home with him. For this, she was paid a nickel a day. But Tony rebelled in the second grade and told his mother, "I'll walk myself to school and you can give me a nickel a week. You can keep the other 20 cents and we'll all be better off." After a period of begging, Tony finally got his way. For the next two years he walked himself to school.

Years later at a family party, he bragged about his independence and reminded his family of how he had taken care of himself as a boy. His mother laughed and added the rest of the story. "Did you really think you were alone? Every morning when you left for school, I left with you. When you got out of school, I was there. I always kept myself hidden, but I followed you all the way home. I just wanted to be there in case you needed me."

BEREAN BAPTIST CHURCH

God... hath given Him a name which is above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth.
